SWALLOW MAY NOT COME. He Has Been Delivered Over to the Authorities of Martinsburg. According to a dispatch from Wheeling, W. Va., the police authorities of this city are not so sure of securing the prisoner, Robert Mc-Col. Beltzhoover, whose arrest was mentioned in The Stan last week. When Detective Wheeler went to Wheeling and identified the prisoner the city authorities wanted the officer to pay expenses, but as the latter had no authority to settle such an account he swore out the necessary papers and took the prisoner before United States Commissioner Rodgers, who turned him over to the United States marshal to be brought to this city as soon as the judge signed the warrant of removal. This saddled the expense on the United States and the detective returned here fully satisfied that the prisoner would arrive two days later. The prisoner did not reach here, and according to the dis-patch printed in a morning paper, the muchwanted criminal was turned over to the Mar esting fight between the state and federal au horities will follow.
